

Nov. 11, 2010

Bigger Picture Group News

Zac Brown Band Knee Deep In Success

Walking away from the 2010 CMA Awards as “Best New Artist of the Year” tops off an unbelievable year for Zac Brown Band. Here at Bigger Picture Group, we’re pretty much over-the-moon happy for Zac and the guys. The win — along with their stellar CMA Awards performance of “As She’s Walking Away” with Alan Jackson — is quite a follow-up to a well-deserved GRAMMY Award in February and recent chart-topping success with the new album You Get What You Give.

You Get What You Give, produced by Zac Brown and Keith Stegall, debuted at #1 on the Billboard 200 and Top Country Albums charts. The album is holding strong in the charts while its hit single “As She’s Walking Away” has raced to No. 1 on Billboard’s Country Songs chart and continues to climb the Hot 100, Digital Songs, and Canadian Hot 100 charts.

The excitement continues with the current tour as well as the “Goin’ Coastal” tour with co-headliner, Kenny Chesney, which kicks off in March of 2011.

To check out the new album, show dates, merch, and everything in the world of Zac Brown Band, click here. While you’re there, check out the Facebook link so you can join us in congratulating Zac Brown Band personally!